Dear Parents and other members of the school community,

What a wonderful week we have had at St Mary's CE School this week. We have celebrated various special events this week.

During the first few days of this week we explored Parliament Week and discovered many facts about the House of Parliament, voting and the first Prime Minister of England, Sir Robert Walpole. Thank you to Tim Farron who came into school a few weeks ago to support our work too. Some classes have been voting for school and worship counsellors this week as part of learning about voting.

We would love it if you could continue our conversations about UK politics this week. Whatever the age of our children they are often fascinated by the workings of how our country is governed.

We have also had a great day celebrating Children in Need. There have been lots of challenges throughout the day and we have had a lot of fun. Keep donating online if you can.

I have been very impressed with the increasing use of Doodle Maths and TT Rockstars over the past few weeks as children have become very keen to improve their maths knowledge. Keep encouraging this if you can as it is so beneficial in reinforcing everything we do in school. Many children are saying how they feel they are improving in maths as a result.

This week we have been rewarding children for their use of excellent vocabulary in their work and writing this week. As educators, it is lovely to see our children using more advanced language each day. I am sure you recognise and value this too.

You will see from our Instagram feed that the children continue to produce some amazing art and are taking part in some very special experiences, enhancing the children's learning and developing their imagination and creativity.

Below are various adverts/fliers for events taking place soon.
